

Michael C. Raines is Instructional Assistant Professor of TESL and ESL. Dr. Raines received his Ph.D. for the University of Mississippi in 1999. He taught at the University of Alabama from 2000 until 2003 where he received his second masters in Spanish, then returned to the University of Mississippi to teach Spanish and ESL. In 2010, Dr. Raines began teaching a variety of TESL courses in Modern Languages. He also teaches the on-line TESL courses for the satellite campuses of Ole Miss. In 2013, Dr. Raines had the honor of receiving the "Instructor of the Year" award in Liberal Arts. He presents at the MFLA and various conferences each year on the topics of TESOL, culture, dialect, and linguistics.